

Sydney based artist, Kerwayne Berry initially set up her studio in Newtown after immigrating from Canada and is now living and working in southern Sydney.

Kerwayne has become recognised for her subtle responses to the Australian landscape in mixed media works on paper and canvas.

Kerwayne Berry revels in exploring and capturing her experience of the texture and light of the shores of Australia.

Through the use of colour, exciting textures and the expressive energy in her work, she opens herself to the viewer to share in the emotions of the moment encouraging us to reconnect with nature and the elements.

Kerwayne's distinctive style expresses depth and energy through a sophisticated layering of visceral experience.
