

Local emerging Artist, Claudio Valenti was born in Italy where, despite an early interest in drawing, he graduated with a Masters in Gregorian Chant and Choral Director, before moving to Sydney, Australia in 1999 to work as a music teacher and composer.

His visual arts practice embraces the disciplines of painting, drawing and photography.

Valenti feels they all strongly relate and co-exist together. In art, as in his music, he is driven by the suggestive rather than the immediate, depicting imaginary landscapes where texture and light play a dominating role.
