

South Coast based artist, Judy Trick is a graduate of the National Art School and Alexander Mackie CAE Sydney.

In Judy Tricks' work there is a sense of experimentation and repetition in her abstracted shapes and the layered patterning moving across the built-up surfaces of her paintings. The intensity of strong reds, yellows, blues often broken with subtle variations of oranges, purples and a stroke of almost acid green that intensifies the viewers response to her perception of the world as experienced.

Judy Trick's work has been exhibited as a finalist in major Australian art prizes, including receiving the 2022 Highly Commended Award: Harden Murrumburrah Landscape Prize, NSW., The Kangaroo Vallery Art Prize, Hunters Hill Art Prize, and the Mosman Art Prize. Her work is held in Public and Private Collections including King Edward IV School Collection, Southampton, United Kingdom, and The King's School, North Parramatta, NSW.
